News in Brief

Over 18's

For those of you who are over 18 years a CRB application will need to be completed. This is one of the reasons you will need to bring along your passport. We are aware that some of you have sent away your passports so please bring along some other form of identification.

No Alcohol

The briefing weekend will be a non alcoholic weekend. Yes we know many of you are over 18 and can make your own decisions but this all part of embracing other cultures and beliefs. Also it gets you prepared for Roverway!

IST

In readiness for your unknown tasks in Iceland you will be plunged into the deep end at Forest Camp as the Contingent Team will be getting you involved with running the weekend as well as taking part!

Briefing Weekend

Location:

The briefing weekend will be held at Forest Camp Activity Centre, Cheshire. This is on Overdale Lane off Tarporley Road, south of Cuddington, Northwich.

The postcode that you may need for your satnav is CW8 2EW.

We will be located at the Begg Building and would appreciate it if you could arrive from 19.00 hrs on Friday 27th March. Please note that tea will NOT be provided on Friday evening.

For the Briefing weekend you will need to bring along a few items! These include the following:

Tent

Folding Chair (for outdoors)

Sleeping Gear

Personal Items

Fancy Dress

- theme Fire, Ice or Nordic

Photocopy of Passport

Health Form

Emergency Contact Details

Journey Details

Flight Details

Saturday Entertainment

We have decided to make the weekend a bit more fun and Saturday evening will be dedicated to entertainment. This will include an awards ceremony for the best fancy dress!

Bring your brains for the pub quiz and your best singing voice for the karaoke!

Don't Forget:

If you haven't done so already please email to let us know if you are able to attend, if you have any special dietary requirements and what time you expect to arrive.

If you require a pick up from the station email now and make sure you get a response!
