

OPERATION RED FLARE 2009

“Operation Red Flare 2009”

What is it? : A 12 mile (ish) incident night hike for teams of 4 to 7 Explorer Scouts, Scout Network, and Senior Section Guides.

There are two team categories – ‘Explorer’, for all team members aged between 14 & 18 on the date of the event, and ‘Open’, for team members aged between 14 & 25 at the date of the event. The winner can come from either category and will be the team with the highest overall total score based on navigation, speed, kit check and team challenges.

When is it? : Saturday 7th March 2009

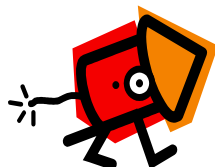

Where is it? : The event takes place on the North Downs in Surrey.

How much to enter? : £7 per team member to cover running costs, camp fees, breakfast etc and you can enter as many teams as you want but full payment is required for each entry.

Closing date for receipt of entries? : Saturday 14th February 2009 or earlier once the maximum of 30 team entries have been received, so don't hang about!

Other info :

- Camping accommodation is available at the end of the hike so don't forget to bring tents.
- Breakfast will be served Sunday morning.
- Results and presentations at 09:30 Sunday morning.

Leader help wanted please (must be CRB cleared) ☺

! Remember: if you're walking, or on a checkpoint overnight, don't transport the teams as well.

Interested? Fill in the booking form below and return it, with full payment, to Steve Carter.
